

BALFOUR DEFENDS
ENGLISH PREMIER

"One of Great Figures in World's History,"
Briton Declares
MAKES POWERFUL PLEA

Two-Party System only Fair-
Weather System; Coalition
Now a Necessity

LONDON, March 7.—"He is one of the greatest figures in the world's history—what is the use of abusing him?" said Sir Arthur J. Balfour, minister of the prime minister, David Lloyd George, in a speech at the Carlton club today. This speech, which was expected to give some clarity to the situation, threw no new light in the crisis, however, and Sir Arthur, like his unionist colleague, Austen Chamberlain, and Sir James Buchanan, who declared from the opposition, was the real provoker of the crisis, did not even mention his name.

Makes Coalition Plea.
Balfour made a powerful plea for continuance of the coalition system as opposed to a return to the two-party system, which, he declared, was only a fair-weather system, unsuited to the present abnormal times when the nation was still laboring under the aftermath of the war. Seven years ago, he said, the coalition was formed, and since that time when the co-operation of the unionists and liberals was more desirable than now, and declaring that he had spent eight years of his life in the coalition, he declared that he had never known anything about it. Balfour paid a more glowing tribute to Lloyd George than had ever been heard from the prime minister's most enthusiastic admirers.

The whole importance of the speech lay in the influence it would have on the rank and file of the conservative party as coming from the oldest and most respected leader of that party. The extent of the influence cannot immediately be calculated. Throughout his political career, including the period of his premiership, it was always a strength against Balfour by the extremists that he was disinclined to take a strong line on any given policy; it is therefore surprising that his plea in behalf of the coalition will have but little effect upon the supporters of Younger.

Speech Disappointing.
No announcement was made in the speech of the premier's future plans and in this way the speech was disappointing, and Balfour only repeated in heightened terms the policy of the coalition and the assurances of support already conveyed to the premier by Mr. Chamberlain and the secretary for war and other ministerial colleagues. It leaves the situation unchanged.

While the crisis has subsided, the problem has not been solved. The prime minister has accepted to strong representations, and will remain to see through the government's Irish and foreign policies. He is clinging to the coalition of the house of Wales for a period variously mentioned as a fortnight to six weeks, depending on the situation of the cabinet ministers. His condition tonight was so improved that he was able to get out of bed. He hopes to resume his duties tomorrow and will start Thursday morning for Criccieth.

The general view is that the crisis will not recur. The coalition, however, parliament will be dissolved. But the activities of the dissident unionists have by no means ceased, as seen by the continued attacks on the Free State bill in parliament yesterday. Sixteen of their leaders, in each house, today issued a stirring manifesto in their favor. In a sound, conservative policy, including "efficiency of the second chamber, so gravely impaired of late years," which is a claim for restoration of the lords veto and declaring that "the ambiguous language and inconsistent action of the past must in the future be scrupulously avoided."

RAID MADE BY MEX BANDITS

Rob Customs Guards at San Pedro and Escape Down Rio Grande. BROWNVILLE, Texas, March 7.—Eight alleged Mexican bandits, mounted, crossed the Rio Grande to the village of San Pedro, Mexico, opposite Brown, Texas, about 11 o'clock on the night of March 3, and robbed three Mexican customs guards and proceeded into the interior of Mexico, according to information reaching officers here late today.

EMBEZZLER PLEADS GUILTY

Former Bryan County Treasurer Appear in Court—Gets 15 Years. BRYAN, March 7.—L. S. Bonner, former Bryan county treasurer, who disappeared last October following the discovery of a shortage in his accounts, appeared in court yesterday before District Judge G. M. March and pleaded guilty to charges of embezzlement. Bonner was sentenced to serve 15 years in the state penitentiary. He was also fined $4,000, twice the amount he was alleged to have embezzled.

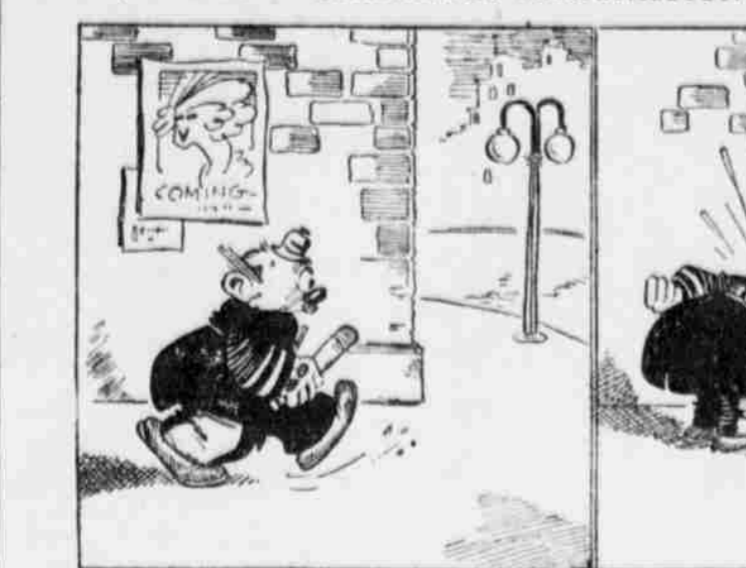

Prizes for Beautification.

CUSHING, March 7.—The Cushing community council has offered three prizes for the most beautiful and attractive yards in the town during the coming season and one prize each for the boy and girl having the best garden. A committee will make monthly inspections.

School Census Declines.

APTON, March 7.—A decrease of 15 in the school population of this city as shown by the recent census, has resulted in the laying off of 15 teachers. The census also showed the total number of school age was 530, whereas the census just taken shows only 515.

CASEY, THE COP—RIGHTEOUS INDIGNATION

COTTON GROWERS
RECEIVING MONEY

Another Payment Made by Association in Three Pools in State

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 7.—Members of the Oklahoma Cotton Growers' association are receiving checks totaling $100,000 which are being mailed out this week, officials of the association announced here tonight. This payment, which amounts to $20 a bale, is being made to members who have delivered cotton which was made into pools at seven and eight, and is the third payment made these members.

An advance of approximately $50 a bale was made to all members who shipped cotton through the association at time of delivery. Members having cotton in the three pools on which payment is now being made, have received to date approximately $80 a bale on their product. The total sum thus far paid by the association to its members is $6,000,000, it was announced.

Additional payments will be paid on pools 53, seven and eight which represent cotton of good middling, strict middling and middling grades, respectively, and all of one inch to inch and one-sixteenth staple, as rapidly as cotton is sold, according to officials of the association. It was said that payments will also be made on other pools as rapidly as sales from these pools will permit.

Hospital Addition Accepted.

Special to The World.
VINTEA, March 7.—The recently completed ward building at the northeastern Oklahoma hospital for the insane located in this city has been passed upon and accepted by the proper state officials, and will greatly relieve the hitherto overcrowded conditions at that institution, as it will afford accommodations for more than 100 patients.
